I sincerely apologize, and thank you for letting me know: "oops."

RECEIVED
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA

APR 19 2024

DANIEL J. MCCOY, CLERK

BY: MB

Previously it was requested at the counter that we be allowed to file electronically in a necessity scenario and to my potential ignorance, but simply in explanation with no attempt to be contrary, that was my prior understanding.

May I have permission to file electronically until our vehicles ^{S.F.T.} [REDACTED] ^{S.F.T.} [REDACTED] receive any necessary repairs? And/or until after interlocked appeals?

Thank you so much for your time and consideration.

May God Bless You,

May it please the Court,
Please find my motion attached, and out of genuine concern...

In my opinion, this series of events where the other parties have already defaulted, violated due process, and super due process... and already have been served via each publication and now also under seal...
In the situation where a not for profit is required under policy, law, indemnity, immunity, and the court is required under 42 U.S.C. 1983 to assist en pauperis plaintiffs with rule 9 civil and maritime claims to rule 4...
With judicial review already potentially completed in all aspects, to my understanding, requiring acquittal... cause one court to foreclose on itself if it hasn't effectuated the process and recognized de novo review?

Even if the de novo review was realized via violations of civil rights, etc., over many years in pattern?
Even if the preemption clause under the 14th amendment is realized via a 2/3 majority in the courts?
Much like the current case regarding Erma Wilson points out, in line with a 2/3 convention of states:
<https://ij.org/press-release/an-unethical-prosecutor-destroyed-her-dreams-now-she-seeks-to-hold-him-court-system-accountable-for-violating-her-constitutional-rights/>

In my opinion, if it bears any weight, Erma Wilson has earned a pardon and a chance to live our American dream, to help others as has been my dream and career, and maybe yours, as well.
In my opinion, in precedent set by the Honorable Larry J. McKinney in my school case, it details, especially when no punitive, nor compensatory damages are given, impeachment is required.
In my opinion, this would also imply, logically, as the only available conclusion, that if impeachment and summary judgement are delayed for any reason, that rule 37 and rule 11 must activate.

Would this not absolutely require the situation of summary judgement under Rule 56 in our favor in full without delay, due to entrapment, necessity, immunity, indemnity, and also jurisprudence?
Since the other parties may only have either an affirmative defense if they conceded, and/or an inchoate defense if any proceedings take place and/or were prevented from ethical outcomes?
In my opinion, after review, to my understanding, this is the only conclusion I found after much research, but, as I'm not a Judge, and I'm here out of necessity, I apologize for any ignorance.

Thank you so much for your time and consideration of our situation, I'm simply giving my all and my best for God, Wife, and Country,

May God Bless You,
Jon F. D. Turpin, Pro Se, Pro Hac Vice

Please find further documentation and a Vaughn Index attached.
This will show that I reached out to FBI Director Wray to inform.

This is in line with the FBI InfraGard and FBI Protected Applicant.
Out of genuine concern, I'm unaware of receipt of FOIA from CIA.

Due to occurrences being way past Glomar Exception to appeal.
This FOIA should contain required proof of clearance for research.

It may contain other information from the Esteemed Stephen Glenn.
However, at this time, I'm unaware of receipt of required information.

I've reached out to the Archivist to inform, in line with CIA Appeals.
NARA has informed me the delay may be considered inappropriate.

What are the 9 FOIA Exemptions?

Not all records are required to be released under the FOIA. Congress established nine exemptions from disclosure for certain categories of information to protect against certain harms, such as an invasion of personal privacy, or harm to law enforcement investigations. The FOIA authorizes agencies to withhold information when they reasonably foresee that disclosure would harm an interest protected by one of these nine exemptions.

The nine exemptions are described below.

- Exemption 1: Information that is classified to protect national security.
- Exemption 2: Information related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency.
- Exemption 3: Information that is prohibited from disclosure by another federal law.
- Exemption 4: Trade secrets or commercial or financial information that is confidential or privileged.
- Exemption 5: Privileged communications within or between agencies, including those protected by the:
 1. Deliberative Process Privilege (provided the records were created less than 25 years before the date on which they were requested)
 2. Attorney-Work Product Privilege
 3. Attorney-Client Privilege
 4. Presidential Communications Privilege
- Exemption 6: Information that, if disclosed, would invade another individual's personal privacy.
- Exemption 7: Information compiled for law enforcement purposes that:
 - 7(A). Could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings
 - 7(B). Would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication
 - 7(C). Could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy
 - 7(D). Could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source
 - 7(E). Would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law
 - 7(F). Could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual
- Exemption 8: Information that concerns the supervision of financial institutions.
- Exemption 9: Geological information on wells.
